

Current Situation in Burma and Karen IPD Camps – September 26, 2007

Dear Thra Binkley,

Thank you so much for helping others to know more about the situation in Burma and the Karens IDP areas and the refugee camps. I am sure you are following closely what is happening now in Burma. The peaceful demonstration of the monks and the people in Rangoon/Yangon ended with 5 monks killed, few injured and one civilian died and few injured according to the Monks" Union report. Both the monks and students pledged to make a bigger and stronger demonstration tomorrow.

It is true that the people must do or play their part if they want to change the political situation in Burma, but I'm strongly convinced that as human beings living in this world which is perceived of as a global village in this age of IT, we need the International Community's support and help.

Please continue to pray for us and help us in ways and means possible. God bless you all.

Sincerely yours in Christ's service among the displaced people,

Saw Simon.
